

Leo went to the forest every day to gather firewood. He would collect the wood,	15 tie it into small bundles, and carry the bundles home each day. He would pack his	31 lunch and stay in the forest until sunset. At noon he would have his lunch, and at	48 noon a bird would visit him. It was white with ash-colored wings and was larger than	65
a dove but smaller than an eagle. Leo always shared a morsel of his food with the	82 bird. Leo called it Jayto and would talk to it from time to time.	96
One very hot summer day, Leo began to eat his lunch and Jayto arrived right on	112 time. Leo gave him some of his lunch, and the bird eagerly pecked at it. It was so	130 hot, Leo decided to take a nap. As he lay down, the bird began to peck and caw at	149 him. The bird was able to convince Leo to follow him. Jayto kept flying small	164 distances waiting for Leo to catch up. Finally they came upon a broken stone wall.	179
Leo had once heard that a rich businessman used to live here long ago. One	194 day he left for a foreign country and never returned. His wife lived alone for a long	211 time, and it was said that she buried her jewelry box and that a strange bird stood	228 guard over it attacking anyone that got near.	236
Was it possible that Jayto was this bird? Suddenly the bird flew from the wall to	252 the ground and started pecking. Leo helped the bird, and sure enough, they	265 uncovered a jewelry box. It was filled with gold, diamonds, rubies, and other	278 precious stones.	280
Leo decided not to go back to town for fear that his treasure would be taken from	297 him. With Jayto on his shoulder, he traveled to a large city far away. He became a	314 rich man and built a beautiful mansion. The mansion had a large garden filled with	329 ponds and flowers. Jayto had all the mangoes that he could eat, and Leo lived a	345
long and happy life.	349
